

Migrants in Scotland

We have thriving businesses, create employment, offer placements and support ..

(Asian female, Highlands)

We bring a lot of skilled workers, able to work, willing to work, even at jobs other people aren't prepared to do.

(Nigerian female, Edinburgh)

...Our sense of values, work and study ethic, respectful behaviour, the importance of community. We are always willing to support community events.

(Chinese female, Inverness)

We bring leadership and vision to churches, communities, voluntary organizations, advisory groups and committees across Scotland.

(Mixed race female, Central Belt)

We look after our family, including our parents when they are old, and don't ask for any help or benefits.

(Chinese male, Highlands)

We are represented in all walks of Scottish life: social, professional, business, academia, politics, sports and religion, and at all levels from top NHS consultant to social care worker, high financier to till operator, chef to pot cleaner, global entrepreneur to packing assistant, professor to student, sports medalist to sports enthusiast, high profile Advocate to legal clerk, Parliamentarian to political activist.
