

Image by Jordan Lewin

Information & Discussion Event

Migrants' Voices, Migrants' Lives In the Highlands and beyond: Together for migrants' rights

Date: Wednesday, 15th June 2011

Time: 17.00-20.00

Venue: Multicultural Centre Inverness

1 Ardconnel Terrace, Inverness IV2 3AE

Migrants' Rights Scotland in cooperation with the Ethnic Minority Law Centre invites you to an evening of

- joint learning about migrants' rights
- sharing our experiences of life in the Highlands and beyond
- exchanging ideas of how migrants, migrant community groups and supporting organisations can work together to promote the rights of migrants.

Speakers include:

Saaima Khalid (Ethnic Minority Law Centre): Recent immigration policy changes and how to get legal advice

Marta Chaba (UNISON): Supporting migrant workers in the Highlands

This event is free.

A buffet dinner and refreshments will be provided.

- Places are limited. Please book your place as soon as possible by registering online on <http://migrantsrightshighlands.eventbrite.com> or by contacting us.
- For those coming from outside Inverness: We have a small travel bursary to help with travel costs of migrants who wish to attend. Please contact us for further arrangements.

www.migrantsrightsscotland.org.uk

Registered Address: Fairfield, Auchterarder PH3 1BZ, Scotland

Email: info@migrantsrightsscotland.org.uk

Skype: migrants.rights.scotland

Company registered in Scotland 376122

Programme

17.00-17.30 Buffet Dinner & Registration

17.30– 18.45 Together for migrants' rights

- Welcome address by Migrants' Rights Scotland and Multicultural Centre Inverness
- Marta Chaba (Unison): Supporting migrant workers in the Highlands
- Saaima Khalid (Ethnic Minority Law Centre): Recent Immigration policy changes and how the EMLC can help you
- Hyo Eun Shin (Migrants' Rights Scotland): Why our voices matter and how to join in making a positive difference to our lives

Q&A with speakers

Tea & Coffee break

18.45-20.00 Migrants' voices, migrants' lives in the Highlands and beyond

- Open discussion: Sharing views, experiences and ideas
- What's next?

For further information or questions please contact:

Hyo Eun Shin, Project Co-ordinator, csp@migrantsrightsscotland.org.uk or call 07883681044.

We are Migrants' Rights Scotland, a migrant-led organisation working for the rights of all migrants, no matter where they come from or why they are here. We advocate for a rights-based approach to migration by supporting migrants and their community organisations to actively engage in the public debate on migration and to collectively influence policies that shape our lives here.